Famine in Paper

Causing Suspensions

Eight weekly newspapers have been forced to suspend publication because of the high cost of paper. The Typographical Journal says that O. Thornton Libby, who for twenty five years has published eight country papers at Portland, Maine, has closed up his business.

Many other small papers are going out of business because of the boost in the cost of paper. Some weekly papers, including our neighbor, the Irvine Sun, have increased their rates to $2 a year. Many daily papers have increased subscription rates from 6 to 12 cents a week, and advertising rates are advancing all over the country. The paper makers say that after Jan. 1st there will be another increase in the cost of print paper, and they only promise to fill orders for a few months ahead. The reserve supply at the mills is gradually being consumed and the situation becomes more serious every day.

Until Jan. 1st, the Clay City Times will accept subscriptions at 75 cents per year. After that date the price will necessarily be one dollar.

Douglas Montgomery Chairman.

Lindsey Douglas was chosen Democratic Chairman at Mt. Sterling Monday. He is the present Deputy County Clerk and is a young man of wide acquaintance and popularity, who gained considerable notice as an organizer and who was chairman of the McChesney Campaign Committee in the last gubernatorial primary. He is also a staunch supporter of Senator Beckham and an ardent advocate of State-wide prohibition.

Mr. Douglas is a son of Thos. J. Douglas, well-known to many of our readers. He is also connected with the Knox family in this county.

Forest Fires Very Damaging.

During the month of November forest fires in Morgan, Pike, Johnson, Jackson, Lewis, Bell, Christian and Harlan counties burned over 5,619 acres of land. The fires caused a loss of $2,536 in timber, $7,703 of young growth and $554 of improvements, mostly fences. Five of the fires originated from railroads, nine from hunters, one from a sawmill, two from children burning leaves and the origin of eleven of them is unknown.

NOTICE!

On account of complaints having been made to the Board of Trustees of Clay City, Ky., by the citizens for not having some place to take their rubbish, etc., except throwing it in the river, which is a violation of the law, and very inconvenient to some, the citizens of the east end of the town and the west end are hereby notified to select some spot that belongs to the town for this purpose and agree upon it. Then notify the Board of their selection for the place to be used.

What is a Life Term?

In a public address a few weeks ago Gov. Stanley arraigned the juries of Kentucky for the general prevalence of lawlessness. Now read this Frankfort telegram:

Governor Stanley pardoned Bart Belieher, of Pike county, who began a life sentence at the reformatory for murder last October.

Sentenced in October to a life term in the penitentiary, in November a fortunate citizen of Pike receives a pardon from a Governor who sought a few weeks ago to put on an indefinite and constantly changing jury responsibility for that lawlessness which disgraces Kentucky.

The record of the Governor in this pardon policy nullifies the work of the jury, and makes the criminal classes believe that murder is no crime in Kentucky.

Think of a life sentence, imposed by a jury, becoming limited by the Governor to one month—sentenced "for life" in October; released by a pardon in November!—Louisville Post.

Forward to Greater Prosperity.

As we must live in this country together, fight out the battles of life together and ultimately be gathered unto dust and to judgment together, let us forget that hitherto we were Republicans or Democrats and henceforth be friends and neighbors and comrades, forgetting rancor and strife, and the bad temper or political division, and moving in one column forward to greater prosperity, greater happiness, better citizenship and universal peace.—Lexington Herald.

Goes South with Sheep.

N. V. Rose left Saturday for some point in Alabama with a consignment of thoroughbred sheep for the farmers of that section. These sheep are shipped by the famous Walnut Hill Stock Farm, of Fayette county.

Mr. Rose took a load of sheep to Colorado in the fall for this farm, and he gave them such satisfactory service in disposing of them that he has been engaged to take this second load.

Mrs. Watson's Glad News.

Mrs. Lilly Belle Watson, living near this city, has just been notified of the second oil well drilled in on her farm lying on South Fork, near Furnace, but in this county. The well is reported at thirty-five barrels. The first well was good for fifteen barrels. The Powell field is beginning to show up good at last.

Bank Report.

The Clay City National Bank has one of its splendid reports in this issue of The Times. The deposits are up to more than $122,000, and the report otherwise shows the bank to be in its usual flourishing condition.

School Entertainment.

The school at Argyle, taught by Mrs. Myrtle Burgher, gave an entertainment Nov. 23rd. The attendance was large. All the patrons were present and were delighted with the rehearsals.

Estill's Roads.

The Estill county road situation is very promising since that county has leased its roads for oil. The county is to get one-fourth royalty and the company who gets the lease assumes all risk for damages. It is estimated that should fifty average producing wells be found on the county roads, the county's yearly income from this source would be enormous. Enough in fact to brick pave every important road in the county in just a few years.

This should put a bug in Powell's ear. We are waiting for good roads over here, and we want them everywhere.

Green Davidson Killed

In Madison county last Sunday Green Davidson was shot and killed while resisting arrest. He will be remembered as one of the witnesses against Tom Wallace and others charged with the death of Houston Underwood at Irvine a few years ago. He was serving a term in the pen for robbery, and had escaped from a gang of convict road workers in Pike county. Douglas Young, father of the officer trying to make the arrest, was wounded with bird shot. His brother, Robert Davidson, was also shot and mortally wounded.

Mail Clerk Now Buying Farms.

M. V. Caldwell, a Q. & C. mail clerk, during wheat harvest invested every dollar he had in wheat, and borrowed all the money he could borrow for the same purpose. He unloaded this wheat a few weeks ago at the prevailing fancy prices. His profits are said to be $200,000, and he is investing this money in Bluegrass land to raise his own wheat hereafter.

Kentucky's Income Tax.

In this State for the last fiscal year, there was one person with an income of some $200,000 to $250,000; two with incomes of $150,000 to $200,000; five with incomes of $100,000 to $150,000; 109 persons with incomes from $25,000 to $100,000; 449 with incomes from $10,000 to $25,000; 2144 with incomes from $3,000 to $10,000. Of this number there is not a one from Powell county.

The Powell Field.

The Patrick leases in this county have to date nine good oil wells on them, while Frank B. Russell has four and two more drilling, soon to be in. These wells added to Mrs. Watson's wells and others previously reported from old Powell gives bright promises that this county will, in due course of time, become a very productive spot for oil operators.

The Same in Powell.

There seems to be no other town in the United States except Middletown, Ohio, for some of the people of this section judging from the way they migrate to that place.—Wolfe County Tribune.

A HOME-MADE PAPER

THURSDAY, DEC. 7, 1916.

Several persons enjoying an automobile ride in Boyle county last week got in bad when they topped a hill and started down the other side. The chauffeur, accustomed to handling a machine of different make, put on his "slow-down," but instead of slowing the speed increased, and the auto went over an embankment pinioning the whole party under it, all badly hurt. The accident was caused by the driver being accustomed to a car which was "fed" by a downward push of a lever, while the one he was running fed by a reverse operation; so, when he wanted to slow-down, instead he put on more power, and the car lunged down the hill.

This accident is food for thought and precaution and shows the necessity for a universal system of all cars for similar operations. At best the automobile is dangerous, so too much care in handling cannot be had.

There was considerable interest shown in most all parts of the State Monday in the selection of Democratic chairmen to serve the next four years. Likewise was there much concern Saturday about the selection of precinct committeemen. The contest was between the dries and the wets for the party machinery.

In Powell county there was no interest taken at the precinct meetings Saturday or the county meeting Monday. In fact we learn that no meeting at all was held at Stanton Monday.

Some milk cans are said to be supplied with false bottoms which can carry a different article to milk at the same time. These false bottoms are used in some dry territory, it is claimed, to carry liquor to persons who ply the bootlegging trade in dry counties. While the device is quite ingenious, the whiskey vendors have been trapped by shrewd officials who really want to put down the traffic.

The good farm papers are now filling their recipe columns with eggless and butterless cakes for the holiday baking. It might be possible that the high prices for these commodities may drive people to pick up substitutes altogether while the high price prevails, which may later seriously cripple the market permanently.

The saying that politics and running for office has broke many a man, seems to be applicable to the late Republican nominee for President, as he is now advertising for sale his handsome home in Washington through a real estate agent.

The income corporation tax for Kentucky this year over last is 10%. In the whole country it is 66%. No wonder Woodrow came in for a second term.

Kentucky ranks third of all the United States in the production of liquor. A shameful position of rank.

To the People of Kentucky:

From the vital statistics of the State Board of Health and other reliable sources we learn that our beloved State is seriously infected with the Great White Plague which is carrying death and desolation into thousands of our homes, and otherwise interfering with the happiness, welfare and prosperity of our State. It has also been reliably reported that between five thousand and six thousand of our people die annually from consumption and that thirty-thousand others are afflicted, who will ultimately die, unless they receive proper care and attention.

The medical profession has discovered that tuberculosis is caused by a specific germ conveyed in the sputum of those afflicted, and is therefore preventable, with proper care and supervision.

With a view to the suppression of this wide-spread scourge, it has been commended by the Kentucky Tuberculosis Commission, as well as by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, that we hereby set apart December 3rd to 10th as Tuberculosis Week.

The physicians of the State are also requested to assist in the medical inspection of the school children of the various schools on medical inspection day, in order to discover children suffering from tuberculosis and to prevent the infection of others with whom they are associated.

In testimony whereof, I have caused these letters to be made

H. H. Towson, Salesman, Describes
How He Caught the Popular "Tanlac Smile," and Relates Suffering He Endured Before He Discovered New Method of Relief.

It's here.
Have you caught it yet?
Nearly everybody, nearly everywhere, has it. It's taking, it's catching. It's easy to tell who has it. The symptoms are a breezy, cheery, happy, healthy, hearty, energetic, ambitious look—and a smile.

It's the "Tanlac Smile." People who have been relieved of suffering and restored to the full enjoyment of health through taking Tanlac have it.

Tells How He Got It.

H. H. Towson, salesman, 2000 West
Third street, Dayton, has the smile.
Mr. Towson is a traveling salesman who "makes" Ohio and Kentucky territory.

"I wouldn't have tried Tanlac if I hadn't believed it would help me," Mr.

H. H. Towson, Salesman, Who Tells How He Got the Popular New "Tanlac Smile."

Towson said, "But I must say that the results I got from taking Tanlac beat anything I expected."

"For two years I suffered. I had a pain like heart-burn almost continually, and my throat would get hot as fire.
I had to be mighty careful what I ate, I can tell you. Solid foods would cause pains, and the forming of gas would make me feel as if I had a lump in my stomach."

"To top all that I had headaches. I was miserable most of the time."

Heard of Many Helped.

"Well, to cut the story short, newspaper after newspaper in town after town had statements of how Tanlac had helped so many different people that I began to take it. I got my first bottle of Tanlac in Cleveland. Did it help me? I'll say it helped me."

"I can eat anything I want and not pay in pain afterwards for the pleasure of satisfying my appetite. And there is another thing I notice: I used to tire out quickly—now it doesn't matter how much I am on the go I finish strong. And the headaches—they are things of the past."

"Yes," concluded Mr. Towson, "I surely do recommend Tanlac because it is a great medicine."

NEW POLICY NEEDED IN GOVERNMENT RAILWAY CONTROL

Helpfulness and Encouragement
Urged by Alfred P. Thom.

CREDIT MUST BE IMPROVED

Increase of Transportation Facilities Necessary to Secure Relief From High Cost of Living May Thus Be Provided For by the Railroads.

Washington, Nov. 28.—A new policy of government railroad regulation, based on constructive principles of helpfulness and encouragement instead of upon principles of repression and punishment, was urged by Alfred P.
Thom, counsel for the Railway Executives' Advisory Committee, the first witness on behalf of the railroads before the Newlands Joint Committee on Interstate Commerce, which has instituted a general inquiry into the problems of railroad regulation.

"It is proposed by the joint resolution of Congress," said Mr. Thom, "to go into a comprehensive study of the whole subject of transportation, to make a new assessment, after 29 years of experiment, of its history, its present conditions and its future needs.
The railroads accept the view that regulation is a permanent and enduring part of government in America and that the first duty of the carriers is to the public. That duty is to afford reasonable facilities on reasonable terms and at reasonable rates, and this must be done before any private interests can be considered."

Certainty, Safety and Sufficiency.

Mr. Thom contended that the real interest of the public is in being assured of certainty, safety and sufficiency of transportation facilities, rather than in rates. The first consideration of the public is to obtain transportation facilities. What the cost is, is in reality a second consideration, he said.

Mr. Thom proposed an increase of transportation facilities as a method of securing relief from the high cost of living. "There have been less than 1,000 miles of new railroad constructed in the United States during the past year," he said, "less than in any year since 1848, except the period of the Civil War, and yet the cost of living is daily advancing owing to a shortage of supplies which might be remedied by securing access to new areas of production."

Credit Must Be Improved.

"This leads to the consideration as to whether railroad credit is as good as the public interest requires. It is impossible for railroads to earn enough to supply the necessary new facilities from current revenue. They must be provided from credit. Investors cannot be coerced, but must be attracted."

Among the conditions affecting railroad credit which deter investors he mentioned the following:

"First, Railroad revenues are not controlled by investors, but are fixed and limited by governmental authority and not by one but by several governmental authorities, which do not recognize responsibility for assured results to investors and are uncoordinated."

"Second, Railroads cannot control and the government cannot and does not limit the expense account."

"Third, The present system of regulation is based on a policy of regulation and correction and not on a policy of helpfulness and encouragement."

"Fourth, The outstanding obligations of the railroads have already exceeded the financial rule of safety and involve a disproportionate amount of obligations bearing fixed charges."

"Fifth, The investor must accept a subordinate obligation or security with no assurance of a surplus of earnings to support it."

"Sixth, Other competitive lines of investment present superior attractions."

"Seventh, The railroad business is largely controlled by political instead of business considerations."

Look Forward, Not Back.

"We may debate about what has caused the present conditions," said Mr. Thom, "but we cannot debate about what the people need. The President has taken the view that we must look forward in this matter and 'make a fresh assessment of circumstances' in order to deal helpfully and intelligently with the problem. Abuses are no more prevalent in the railroad business today than in any other business humanely conducted. The great question now is whether the existing system of regulation gives the public reliable assurance of sufficient present and future railroad facilities."

"Those who oppose any change must make their appeal on the ground that the present systems assure the public of the continued adequacy of transportation facilities. If they do not, no argument based on the desirability of the present dual system of regulation will be accepted by public judgment.

The question of 'states' rights' is not involved. If the regulation of transportation facilities privately owned should fall government ownership must follow, and then all power of the states over the railroads would disappear.

"Let us debate this question, then not upon any mere theory or jealousy as to the distribution of governmental power, but upon the large issue of what the public interest requires in respect of the assurance of adequate transportation service."

Mr. R. A. Chiles of Mt. Sterling, and Mr. A. T. Whitt of Clay City, helped to furnish the Thanksgiving dinner for the children. They were equal to the occasion if you can judge from the way it disappeared.

A Nervous Woman Finds Relief From Suffering.

Women who suffer from extreme nervousness, often endure much suffering before finding any relief.
Mrs. Joseph Snyder, of Tiffin, O., had such an experience, regarding which she says:

"Six months I was bedfast with nervous prostration. I had sinking spells, a cold,
clammy feeling,—
could not stand
the slightest noise. At times
I would almost fly to pieces;
stomach very weak. My husband insisted on my taking Dr.
Miles' Nerveine, and I began to improve before I had finished the first bottle until I was entirely cured."

MRS. JOSEPH SNYDER,
262 Hudson St., Tiffin, Ohio.

Many remedies are recommended for diseases of the nervous system that fail to produce results because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. Dr. Miles' Nerveine has proven its value in such cases so many times that it is unnecessary to make claims for it. You can prove its merits for yourself by getting a bottle of your druggist, who will return the price if you receive no benefit.

What To Do When Backache Comes On

Many People Find Quick Relief in Foley Kidney Pills

When backache comes on, and it seems as if you can't stand the pain and pressure in your back and sides, do not feel that you must keep on suffering till it wears itself out. It is more apt to wear you out and seriously affect your general health. Get a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills and start taking them at once. They usually help from the very first doses. For backache is one of nature's danger signals that your kidneys are not in a sound and healthy state, that they are wrong; and when your kidneys are wrong, you may be sure you face a serious condition.

Foley Kidney Pills have a direct and beneficial action on the kidneys, bladder and urinary organs. Their effect is quickly felt in improved kidney and bladder action, and in the passing away of those painful and alarming symptoms. No more backache, weariness and dragging pains. No more painful, sleepless nights, having to rise time after time. It will pay you to try Foley Kidney Pills promptly, as did Mr. J. W. Etris, R. 2, Cleveland, Ga., who writes us: "I suffered with a terrible backache. Every time I would lean or stoop over to one side, I'd have a painful catch in my back just over my kidneys. Just one box of Foley Kidney Pills entirely relieved my backache. It has been some time since I took them, and I have not felt any of the symptoms since."

Mr. J. W. Etris.

Foley Kidney Pills are sold everywhere in 50c and $1.00 sizes. The $1.00 size is the more economical buy, as it contains 2½ times as many as the 50c size.
